

LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE LEARNING

Description of Activity: School districts desiring to add the semester course Leadership and Service Learning to one of the career focus programs of study in family and consumer sciences may use Perkins funds for this activity. Leadership and Service Learning is a semester course for 7th- through 12th-grade students and is designed to develop leadership skills, promote volunteerism, and strengthen school and community awareness. Approved purchases will include a laptop computer with printer and presentation software, a computerized presentation board, handheld data manager, digital camera, and instructional materials. The school district must have an affiliated state and national FCCLA chapter. Permissive #3 – Provide Work-Related Experience; Permissive #6 – Assist Vocational Student Organizations; Required #3 – Expand Technology; Permissive #10 – Develop New Course; Permissive #11 – Support FACS Programs.

Curriculum: Schools must currently have an approved program of study in a family and consumer sciences area to be eligible for this special training. The Leadership and Service Learning curriculum was developed by Arkansas family and consumer sciences teachers and is the official curriculum. The purchase of other designated resources is encouraged for use as a supplement to the curriculum for the course. This course must be taught for a total of five years after the addition of this activity.

Inservice: The implementation of this course offering must be preceded by the state-approved inservice. Inservice has been tentatively scheduled for July 19-22, 2005, at Rose Bud High School in Rose Bud. Registration will be $400 and will cover the cost of all materials needed for training. Travel, lodging, and meals are not included in this.

Cost: A list of approved equipment and supplies eligible for purchase with Perkins funds may be obtained from the program manager. The equipment and instructional materials will not exceed $7,000.
